

PRESENTATION

We start effectively our academic project of systematically publishing the Electronic Journal: Time - Technical - Territory in 2010, putting in cyberspace articles, reviews and technical reports from different segments, but with points of convergence. From 2012 the magazine became bilingual (Portuguese-English) and thus our work demands have increased, but also broaden the geographic reach of contributions. Up to the present moment (2010-2015) published 55 articles in Portuguese and 25 in English. Happy reading the articles that make up the Volume 6, Number 1 of this Journal.

A hug to everyone and all!

A hug to everyone!

The Editors.
